INTRODUCTION

Penwood Grange is believed to date in parts from the late 1600's and has been added to over the generations. Originally part of a larger house, (indeed the neighbours are demolishing their side and reducing it to stores only) it is a delightful family home, and a rarity, as there are about 40 acres of which about 18 acres are paddocks and pasture and 17 acres are woodland, with the remaining 5 acres being gardens and grounds.

LOCATION & SITUATION

Penwood Grange is just outside Penwood, between Highclere, Burghclere and Newbury, in north-west Hampshire. The setting is distinctly rural, surrounded by woodland, mature trees, and paddocks. The property is approached from Penwood Drove, a quiet country lane serving a few houses and Penwood Garden Centre. The area is well known for its beautiful countryside and is within the North Wessex Downs National Landscape. Newbury is about 4 miles away with an extensive range of shopping, recreational and professional facilities. Newbury station is about a quarter of an hour's drive, from where fast trains to London Paddington take 40 minutes.

ANNEXE & GARAGE

A separate annexe provides useful ancillary accommodation and could suit a variety of purposes including games room or guest accommodation. The garage provides useful, covered parking and storage. There is a second garage near the entrance.

EQUESTRIAN FACILITIES

With separate access from Fox's Lane are the stables, paddocks and schooling facilities. The driveway leads down to the stables and horsebox parking.

The grazing is gently sloping, with a level area, large enough for an outdoor school. The equestrian facilities form an important element of Penwood Grange. The stables provide practical accommodation for horses and associated storage and working areas.

There are four loose boxes, a storage barn, a tractor shed and a tack / feed room. Hard standing / wash down area. In addition are four field shelters used for additional stabling.

There is an extremely useful circular woodchip canter track and a schooling track which has been used for training racehorses and point to pointers, under a BHA permit with great success.
